Saltbox News

Hope everyone had a fun and safe 4th of July.

The Truman Lake Hook-In is FAST approaching (Aug. 10). The early registration fee ends on August 1st. So be sure and get your registration in and save some money before August 1.

We have included a registration form for the upcoming Truman Lake Hook-In and Rug Show on August 10. The workshops being held on August 9 (day before the Hook-In) will include:

wool flowers

hooking a small bag for hooks, punches, etc.

making a wool lavender spray and felting a pin cushion in a small creamer

creating a fall wreath

The cost for each of these workshops will be $25.00. There will be a morning (10:00-12:00) and afternoon (1:00-3:00) session. All classes will be offered at both sessions. Information and pictures on page four.

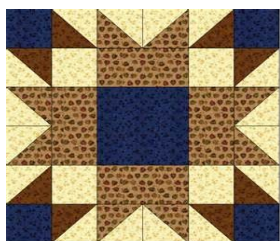

The July Rug of the Month is on page four. This month's rug is absolutely awesome. Wait til you see it.

Don't forget Stitchin' With Karen on the third Thursday of every month. No cost, just great camaraderie! Karen does such great work and is always ready to share her knowledge.

Workshops August 9, 2019

(day before the Truman Lake Hook-In)

Rug Hooking Bag - led by Bev Ekstrand and Marsha Buckner

You will be hooking the front of this small bag. The bag has a zipper in the back and can be easily put together when hooking is finished. You will need to bring your frame, hook and scissors.

Wool Flowers - Pat Dougherty

In this class you will complete two wool flowers.
Please bring frame, hook, and scissors.

Wool Lavender Spray & Felted Pin Cushion - led by Patty Wallace

This workshop has two projects. You will felt wool roving for a pin cushion in a small creamer and will also make a wool lavender spray. You will need to bring scissors.

Fall Wreath - led by Linda Harpham and Sandy Wiseman

We will use a wire wreath form and deco mesh to complete a fall wreath. You will need to bring scissors to cut the mesh.

Vendors at Truman Lake Hook-In

Georgia Adams - Georgeville Store

Primitive Rug Hooking Designs features hand dyed wool supplies, classes, frames, cutter B-Line, wool hooks, jewelry, & wool vests.

Elinor Barrett - Baa Baa Barrett Woolens & Such

Elinor Barrett is the owner of Baa Baa Barrett Woolens & Such, Columbia, MO. Elinor designs and draws rug hooking patterns and enjoys helping others select their colors and materials to achieve the rug they envision. Elinor's sister, Susan, helps with patterns, color planning and working in the booth.

Catherine DeLisle - Quail Farm Pottery

Catherine does wheel-thrown and hand built pottery and sculptures. Every piece is one-of-a-kind. She uses a variety of glaze colors and finishes.

Colleen Faulkner - Whackadoo Yarns

Whackadoo Yarns is a hand-dyed rug wool yarn company. We have lots of wonderful 100% New Zealand wool yarns for all your punching needs! We will also have lots of class options, patterns and needles on hand. Please come and enjoy! Located in our Capital, Jefferson City Missouri. Colleen Faulkner, the owner, is a certified Oxford Rug Teacher and Designer.

Karen Greenfield - Pretties and Primitives

She has been doing "crafts" since she was little. She works with wool plus various textiles, which she appliques and quilts. Her husband Dixon is a great part of the business. He is handy with all the wood pieces. She is looking forward to vending at the show, and meeting new people. And maybe learn a thing or two.

Gina Levesgue - Across Generations - Traditional Fiber Arts

I come from a long line of artistic women. I am a 4th generation rug hooker and have been hooking for twenty years. I have also been a weaver for twenty years. But my favorite activity is playing with color in my dye pans. Whether they are dyes from natural materials or acid dyes, I love them all! I am Vice President of the Tulsa Handweavers Guild, and a member of the Tulsa Rug Hooking Guild.

Marcia Voss - White Horse Antiques

White Horse Antiques is your premiere destination in central Missouri for primitive rug hooking. We always have a great selection of hand-dyed wools, frames, cutters, patterns and kits. Classes and hook-ins held monthly. The shop is in an 1840 period home which is on the National Register located in the heart of historic Rocheport, Missouri.

Patty Wallace - Saltbox Primitive Woolens

Patty is hosting this event. Her shop (Saltbox Primitive Woolens) is located on the Dam Access Road in Warsaw, MO. Her shop has all the supplies for rug hooking and quilting, appliqué, rug punch, with lots of other things that make this shop unique. Patty and her husband, Ozzie, both grew up in Warsaw. And if Patty is vending at an event, you might just find Ozzie running the shop or helping out at the vending event.
